

Welcome and introductions

Nicole Valentine

Session 1.1

Introduction to the Social Determinants of Health, Sustainable Cities and Health in All Policies – core concepts

Workshop Learning Outcomes

- Explain the social determinants of health (SDH) framework, key Commission recommendations, and the definition of the Health in All Policies (HiAP) approach and related core concepts
- Identify key policies, principles, mechanisms, examples of policy champions, stakeholders, and sectors (including health sector, governmental, and non-governmental) that are
  - ....important for sustainability of the HIAP approach
  - ....important for addressing air pollution, urban health, equity and sustainability

Workshop Learning Outcomes

(2)

- Identify key implications of the SDH framework and the HiAP approaches for preventing and remediating air pollution
- Identify key implications of the SDH framework and HiAP approaches for improving education and training and professional certification and advancing life-long learning in the health sector
- Describe why air pollution is an important determinant of health and its relationship to other determinants of health and health equity

Structure/ Agenda

Day 1. Core concepts, Air pollution and HiAP practice

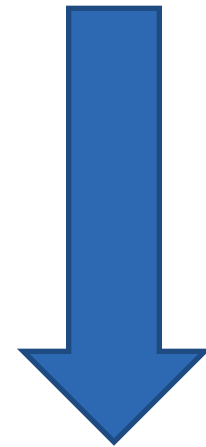

- Public campaigns, Evidence into policy

Day 2. Urban health, Role Government, Health Stakeholders

- Stakeholder engagement, Negotiation

Day 3. Assessing progress in HiAP

- Finalize Individual Action plans

Individual Action Plans

- Taking evidence into policy and action
- Strategizing for public health advocacy/communications campaigns
- Developing cross-sectoral partnerships and negotiating solutions

